

SCHEME OF THE CHARITY COMMISSION FOR NORTHERN IRELAND PURSUANT TO SECTION 29 OF THE CHARITIES ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND) 2008

DATED

4 September 2026

THIS SCHEME WILL ALTER OR AFFECT THE GOVERNING DOCUMENT OF THE CHARITY KNOWN AS THE

KNOCKNAGONEY MISSION HALL

CHARITIES ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND) 2008

Scheme made by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 29 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

WHEREAS:

1. The charity was established through a Declaration of Trust establishing a charity called the Knocknagoney Mission Hall ("the charity").
2. The charity's existing governing document is the Declaration of Trust signed 16 September 1968.
3. The purposes of the charity are as follows:

'...and to permit the said premises and all or any building or buildings which now are or may be hereafter erected on the said premises or any part thereof to be used by Believers holding the doctrines and observing the practices set forth in the Schedule hereto for the conduct of Meetings for the Worship of God, for the preaching of the Gospel of the Grace of God and for the fellowship and edification of Believers and also for the holding of a Sunday School therein and other meetings connected with any of the foregoing purposes and approved by the Trustees.'

4. Pursuant to an application to the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland ("the Commission") made on 21 November 2023 the trustees of the charity expressed a desire to transfer the assets of the organisation to the various Christian missionary organisations with common purposes to manage the funds on the basis that the original purposes of the Trust cannot be carried out due to low numbers which make it financially unviable for the Trust to continue.
5. The existing governing document does not contain a power enabling the trustees to transfer assets and dissolve the charity if they decide that it is necessary and desirable to do so.
6. The trustees request that the powers available to the Commission be used to make a scheme to include such a power within the existing governing document.

NOW THEREFORE:

The Charity Commission for Northern Ireland after due inquiry and pursuant to section 29 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008 and all other powers enabling it HEREBY MAKES THE FOLLOWING SCHEME:

A new clause will be added to the governing document:

The Trustees may dissolve the Charity if they decide that it is necessary or desirable to do so. To be effective, a proposal to dissolve the Charity must be passed at a special meeting by a two-thirds majority of the Trustees and any assets remaining after the Charity's debts have been paid ('the net assets') must be given:

- (a) to another charity (or other charities) with purposes that are the same or similar to the charity's own, for the general purposes of the recipient charity (or charities); or*
- (b) to any charity for use for particular purposes which fall within the charity's purposes; or*
- (c) directly for purposes within the charity's purposes*

The Charity Commission for Northern Ireland must be notified promptly that the Charity has been dissolved and, if the trustees were obliged to send accounts to the Commission for the accounting period which ended before its dissolution, they must send the Commission the Charity's final accounts.

The charity shall be administered in accordance with its existing governing document as altered or affected by this Scheme.

The Commission may decide any question put to it concerning:

- (i) The interpretation of this scheme; or
- (ii) The propriety or validity of anything done or intended to be done under it.
